TEXTO COMPLETO

Try Something New for 30 days - Parte 3

I also figured out that if you really want something badly enough, you can do anything for thirty days. Have you ever wanted to write a novel? Every November, tens of thousands of people try to write their own fifty-thousand-word novel, from scratch, in thirty days. It turns out, all you have to do is write one thousand six hundred and sixty seven words a day for a month. So I did. By the way, the secret is not to go to sleep until you've written your words for the day. You might be sleep-deprived, but you'll finish your novel. Now is my book the next great American novel? No. I wrote it in a month. It's awful. But for the rest of my life, if I meet John Hodgman at a TED party, I don't have to say, "I'm a computer scientist." No, no, if I want to, I can say, "I'm a novelist."
