

Worksheet

Present Perfect Continuous

1 - Change the sentences to the negative and interrogative form:

a) She has been studying all night.

Neg.: She has not (hasn't) been studying all night.

Int.: Has she been studying all night?

b) You have been waiting for a long time.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

c) It has been raining too much in this area.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

d) Sarah has been driving for two months now.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

e) Marie has been writing in her diary.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

f) Claire has been teaching English since 2006.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

g) We have been trying to find a solution.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

h) Brian has been speaking on the phone for two hours.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

i) They have been working with the proper supervision.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

j) Sam has been walking the whole morning.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____