

AUSTRALIA SEM INGLÊS

Perguntas mais comuns em uma entrevista de abordagem

Empregos de sobrevivência

A sigla colocada na frente de cada frase é para você saber de quem é a fala:

VC = você e G = gerente

VC: Is the Manager here?

VC: May I speak with the manager please?

VC: Can I talk with the manager please?

Quando você se encontrar com o manager você vai dizer:

VC: Hi Nice to meet you. My name is

G: Nice to meet you I'm Greg

VC: Hi Greg, I am wondering if you have any job available?

VC: I am wondering if you are looking for a hardworking person to work for you.

O gerente provavelmente vai te perguntar:

G: May I have your CV please? Ou

G: Have you got a CV with you? Ou

G: Leave your CV with me and I will check it later...

G: Have you got any experience?

VC: se a resposta for não:

I'm a quick learner however I haven't got any experience YET.

VC: Se a resposta for sim:

Yes, I have worked as a babysitter/ Barista/ Waiter/ Kitchen hand at (location) where I got a lot of experience in

G: Do you have a TFN or ABN number ou

G: Have you got a TFN?

VC: Yes, I do

AUSTRALIA SEM INGLÊS

G: What kind of visa have you got?

VC: I've got the student visa.

G: Do you have time to do a trial right now?

VC: Yes I am ready.

VC: What would like me to do?

G: What is your availability this week?

VC: I am available to work from

G: Are you able to start tomorrow?

VC: Yes, I am available from...

VC: se a resposta for não:

Hum, unfortunately I am not available tomorrow, but I am available onTuesday, Wednesday, etc...

G: Great. I will see you on Tuesday at 5pm

VC: Thank you Greg for the opportunity. See you tomorrow.