

MAIRO VERGARA

ADVANCED PHRASAL VERBS COURSE

Sentences for Anki | Lesson 03

Front:

Playing on the competitive soccer team was hard, but Sharon wanted to follow through with the season.

Back:

Follow through = to keep going in an activity till it finishes.

Sharon is playing on a soccer team that is competitive, or where all the players are maybe much better than she is. Because it's hard, she has thought about quitting, but instead, she decides to follow through, or finish, playing the whole season.

Front:

Kayla has not followed through on any of the art projects that she started in class this school year.

Back:

Follow through = to keep going in an activity till it finishes.

We know from the sentence that Kayla has started many art projects this year, but we can tell that she has not finished any of them. Kayla has not followed through or completed any of the art projects that she has started this year.

Front:

John was happy that his brother could follow through on his promise to pay him back for the $1,000 that he loaned.

Back:

Follow through = to keep going in an activity till it finishes.

John loaned his brother some money and thought that his brother would pay him back since he gave a promise. John was happy that his brother completed, or followed through on his promise by paying him back $1,000.

Front:

If you don't follow through with your bat, you might not hit the ball as hard as you wanted to.

Back:

Follow through = to continue a motion until it is complete

When someone is playing baseball they hope to hit the ball as hard as they can. If you don't complete the motion, or follow through with your swing, you won't be able to hit the ball are hard.

Front:

Jorge was going to marry Giselle in just 2 weeks, but decided he couldn't follow through with the wedding because he didn't love her.

Back:

Follow through = to keep going in an activity till it finishes.

When someone decides not to follow through with a wedding, they are decided not to get married. They decide to cancel the wedding before it happens, in this case it is because they are not in love with the other person.

Front:

I had the choice to follow through with the language course if I paid a fee, but I couldn't afford it.

Back:

Follow through = to keep going in an activity till it finishes.

The language course had a fee, or payment, in order to participate. In this case, the participant didn't have the money, so they were not able to follow through, or complete, the language course.

Front:

Sally went bowling with her family and accidentally dropped the bowling ball on her foot because she didn't follow through.

Back:

Follow through = to continue a motion until it is complete

When bowling, in order to complete the motion and get the ball to go down the lane, one must follow through. Because Sally did not complete the motion, or follow through, the ball did not go down the lane and instead dropped on her foot.

Front:

We were not able to follow through with our plans to go surfing because the weather was so bad.

Back:

Follow through = to keep going in an activity till it finishes.

In this case, they had a plan to go surfing, but because the weather was bad, they were not able to complete their plan. They couldn't follow through with surfing because of the weather.

Front:

When her computer battery died, Cathy was not able to follow through with the purchase she was making online.

Back:

Follow through = to keep going in an activity till it finishes.

Cathy wanted to purchase something online, but she was not able to finish her purchase because her computer battery died. She wasn't able to follow through with the purchase.

Front:

After it rained all day, Kyle knew that his outdoor birthday party wasn't going to turn out the way he hoped it would.

Back:

Turn out = for something to happen the way you expected it to.

Kyle had expected to have a great birthday party outdoors, but because it rained, we know that the birthday party is probably cancelled, or moved inside. So the party didn't turn out the way Kyle thought it would.

Front:

When the wedding was over, Justine felt like everything turned out much better her mother said it would.

Back:

Turn out = for something to happen the way you expected it to.

At a wedding, there are many things that need to happen in order for the day to go smoothly.

Justine felt like everything happen better than she expected, and the wedding turned out nicely.

Front:

Jamie and Sam only invited 25 people to their house to watch the game, but 50 people turned out!

Back:

Turn out = to be present at or to come to an event or activity

In this case, there are people coming to watch a game at Jamie and Sam's house. 50 people came, or turned out, to watch the game.

Front:

Ximena was scared when her father turned out the lights in their camping tent.

Back:

Turn out = to cause the lights to go off

When camping outdoors, it can be very dark at night. We can imagine that when the lights go off, or are turned out, that someone might become scared because they can no longer see what's near them.

Front:

Mrs. Allen used two cups of sugar instead of one cup of sugar, so the cake turned out much sweeter than it was supposed to.

Back:

Turn out = for something to happen the way you expected it to.

In this case, Mrs. Allen used twice as much sugar as she was supposed to. That means that final cake was too sweet - it turned out much too sweet!

Front:

To help them students see the screen better, the professor turned out the lights that were shining in their eyes.

Back:

Turn out = to cause the lights to go off

When the students were trying to look at the screen, the light was shining too brightly in their eyes. To solve this problem, the professor turned out, or shut off the lights.

Front:

When the flyer said, "Free Pizza!", over 200 students turned out to the academic meeting.

Back:

Turn out = to be present at or to come to an event or activity

The flyer that said, "Free Pizza!" was exciting to many students. Because of this, many students were present at the academic meeting.

Front:

Cancelling the baseball game turned out to be a bad idea, as the storm was gone before the game even started.

Back:

Turn out = for something to happen the way you expected it to.

The baseball game was cancelled because there was going to be a storm. However, the storm was gone before the game started, so it was not a good idea to cancel the game. It turned out to be a bad idea to cancel the game.

Front:

Only 3 people turned out for the 7:30am meeting that Mr. Alvarez held on Monday morning.

Back:

Turn out = to be present at or to come to an event or activity

Mr. Alvarez had a meeting scheduled for 7:30am on a Monday morning. Not many people want to get up for a meeting at 7:30am on a Monday morning, so only 3 people came, or turned out.

Front:

Even though she was nice, Ashley turned out to be a bad friend because she never called Jenny back.

Back:

Turn out = for something to happen the way you expected it to.

Jenny thought that Ashley was going to be a good friend because she was nice. However, Ashley didn't ever call Jenny back, so Jenny decided she was not a good friend. It turned out that Ashley was not a good friend.

Front:

Calem decided to go through with the airplane trip to Hawaii even though he didn't like flying.

Back:

Go through with = to do something even if there are problems or concerns

Calem is going a trip to Hawaii and he is travelling by airplane. Calem does not like flying on planes, but is going to do it because he is excited about going to Hawaii.

Front:

Even though she is nervous, Janie decided to go through with the performance on stage because she signed up two months ago.

Back:

Go through with = to complete a task or event that your promised to do

Janie signed up for the performance two months ago. Now she is feeling nervous to perform on stage, but feels like she needs to since she signed up so long ago. While she is nervous, she is going through with the performance anyways.

Front:

Yessica was right in the middle of a terrible headache, but had to go through with the weekly meeting in her boss' office.

Back:

Go through with = to complete a task or event that your promised to do

Yessica is having a terrible headache, and probably wants to sit down and rest for a bit. However, she has already promised to meet with her boss, and has to go through with the meeting while she has a bad headache.

Front:

Carrie didn't think she liked Jake at all, but decided to go through with the dinner date because he was a nice guy.

Back:

Go through with = to complete a task or event that your promised to do

Carrie promised to go on a date with Jake. After she made the promise, she decided that she didn't really like him that much. Because she thinks he is nice, and she doesn't want to be rude, she decides to go through with the date.

Front:

Mr. Klein found out that the company he was meeting with was in financial trouble, but decided to go through with the interview anyways.

Back:

Go through with = to do something even if there are problems or concerns

If a company is in financial trouble, they may not have enough money to pay a new employee. Mr. Klein is worried that this company will not be able to pay him if he is hired. He decides to go through with the interview even though he is concerned.

Front:

Hannah's father thinks she should not go through with the wedding because her fiancé has never had a job, and doesn't want a job.

Back:

Go through with = to do something even if there are problems or concerns

Hannah's father probably thinks that her fiancé is lazy, mainly because he doesn't have a job, and does not want a job. Her father probably thinks he will be a bad husband. He thinks she should not get married to him, and should not go through with the wedding.

Front:

Jamal couldn't go through with his trip to Chile in July because he wasn't able to save enough money.

Back:

Go through with = to do something even if there are problems or concerns

It can often be expensive to travel, and Jamal was saving money so that he could go to Chile.

Because he didn't save enough money, he did not have enough money plane ticket, or other costs, and couldn't go on the trip.

Front:

The art department at the elementary school could not go through with the summer camp because only 1 student signed up.

Back:

Go through with = to complete a task or event that your promised to do

The art department was going to have a summer camp, but only 1 student showed up. The art department probably thought it was not worth it to have a camp with only 1 student, so they decided not to have, or go through with, the summer camp.

Front:

Haley couldn't go through with the cake recipe for the party because she didn't have the right ingredients.

Back:

Haley had promised to make a cake for the party. In order to make a cake, you need the right ingredients. Because Haley didn't have the right ingredients she was not able to make, or go through with, the cake recipe.

Front:

The new company decided they could not go through with their updated business plan until they had hired a new CEO.

Back:

Go through with = to do something even if there are problems or concerns

The new company wanted to start their new business plan. They decided that before they could do that they needed to hire a new CEO. They were not able to start, or go through with, their new business plan until they hired a new CEO.