

Worksheet

Future Perfect Continuous

1 - Change the sentences to the negative and interrogative form:

a) We will have been running for three hours before we get tired.

Neg.: We will not (won't) have been running for three hours before we get tired.

Int.: Will we have been running for three hours before we get tired?

b) He will have been playing computer games for ten hours when he finally stops.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

c) We will have been looking at houses for five months next Wednesday.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

d) I will have been practicing karate for seven years when I get my black belt.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

e) Sebastian will have been doing this project for long when the inspector arrives.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

f) Our kids will have been sleeping together when their bedrooms are ready.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

g) Anthony will have been training a lot when he qualifies to the competition.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

h) I will have been answering students' questions before the exams.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

i) Melissa will have been cooking all day long before the guests arrive.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

j) They will have been waiting for months when they finally get their loan.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____