

Identifying Unique / Site local

In IPv6 we have different types of addresses such as link local addresses, unique / site local addresses, and global addresses. How can you identify a unique / site local address?

Selecione uma alternativa

A Unique local addresses will start with FFFF

B Unique local addresses will start with 2xxx

C Unique local addresses will start with FC00

D Unique local addresses will start with FE80